The Honorable Lorraine C. Miller
Clerk of the House
U. S. House of Representatives
Legislative Resource Center
B-106 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515-6612

Dear Madam Clerk,

I filed the 2009 United States House of Representatives Financial Disclosure Statements with the House Committee on Standards on May 14, 2010.

I accurately reported that my spouse, Mark Kelly, received a salary from the U. S. Navy. I also showed that he had a salary from NASA. I would like to clarify that the U. S. Navy is Captain Kelly's employer. The money he received from NASA was not salary but was a JSC Superior Achievement Award that included a monetary award of two thousand (2,000) dollars

On the 2008 report, I also showed that his NASA income was salary. Again, that should have been categorized as a monetary award and not as salary.

In addition, in reviewing the 2007 Financial Disclosure Statement recently, I realized that I inadvertently had omitted the NASA funds from Schedule I. NASA should be listed, with a monetary award amount of less than $2500.

In all three years (2009, 2008, and 2007) his employer was the U. S. Navy. In each of those years, Captain Kelly received an award from NASA of less than $2,500.00. I understand that you will be able to add this letter to the reports for all three years.

I apologize for the incorrect selection of salary instead of award in 2008 and 2009 and for the inadvertent omission of the award from the 2007 report. And I apologize for the additional work at your office to add this letter to the three reports.

Please contact me if you need further information.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Gabrielle Giffords
